Our offer of the Toledo weekly Blade and The Taney County Republican for one year for one dollar has already found several takers. Call on us or write and inclose $1.00 and we will furnish you both papers on these terms. The cost of either one alone is the same as that of both under our clubbing arrangement.

One Minute Cough Cure is rightly named. It affords instant relief from suffering when afflicted with a severe cough or cold. It acts on the throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs and never fails to give immediate relief. B B Price.

The Billings Times says: "J. V. Keithley and family, of Walnut Shade, Taney county, were visiting Mrs. Keithley's parents, J. S. Joines and wife, last week. They returned home last Friday accompanied by Amos Keithley and bride, where the latter will spend their honeymoon in the Taney county hills."

The Ozark Searchlight says: "Prof. James E. Miner of Taney county, formerly school commissioner of that county, and at one time a school teacher at Hopedale, this county, was in Ozark this week to be examined for an increase of pension, on account of total blindness."

Illeg cholera cure—the best on earth, guaranteed. Ask for Moore's "No Cholera," at John T. Dickenson's, Taney City store.

The Springfield Republican has this to say of a former resident of Taney City: "Mr. Wm. Myers and Miss Effie Shadrack, both of Springfield, called at the parsonage and were made man and wife by Rev. J. W. Needham, Springfield, Mo., December 3, 1895." THE REPUBLICAN extends congratulations.

Mr. Edward Perry, late of Colorado, has rented the Queen place from Mr. J. C. Parrish. Mr. Perry is very favorably impressed with the appearance of Taney county and also thinks that Forsyth has a bright future.

The following marriage licenses have been issued by the recorder since last Thursday: Wallas Carpenter and Vinie Strum, both of Cedar Creek; W. R. Beshear and Lyla Fertle, both of Kirbyville; James Riley and Alice Robertson, both of Cedar Creek.

While on his way to Springfield, last Sunday, Mr. John H. Parrish lost his pocketbook containing between $60 and $75 in cash and checks enough to make up a loss of $100. Mr. Parrish missed the pocketbook shortly before his arrival in Ozark. He was riding on horseback and the pocketbook worked out of his hip pocket. Payment has been stopped on the checks. Messrs. Parrish and Tolerton got home last night and brought one new buggy back with them.

The Literary Society's meeting last Friday night was very well attended. The chief interest of the occasion centered in the debate on the following proposition: Resolved that the printing press is of greater benefit than the steam engine. The affirmative was represented by Messrs. D. F. McConkey, H. R. Melton and James Johnson, Jr. For the negative, Messrs. G. L. Taylor, Wash Bowerman and T. J. Vanzandt made the fight. The judges were Mrs. C. H. Groom, Miss Bertie Davis and Miss Cora Thompson. The debate consisted mainly of a sharp exchange of personalities and the judges decided unanimously in favor of the affirmative. The subject for debate tomorrow night is: Resolved that the progress of society depends more upon the thinker than the laborer. The speakers for the affirmative are: Messrs. D. F. McConkey, H. R. Melton and James Johnson, Jr. For the negative, G. L. Taylor, J. L. Davis and Wash Bowerman.

Trustee's Sale.
Whereas, William E. McBratney and Albe McBratney his wife, and Edward D. Nightingale, a single man, of the county of Taney and State of Missouri, by their certain deed of trust, dated the 27th day of July, 1895 and acknowledged on the 1st day of August, 1895 and recorded in the recorder's office of Taney County, Missouri in deed of trust book No. 2, page 91, conveyed to C. C. Blount as trustee, the following described land, to-wit: E. half lot 1 of s. e. q. and the n. half s. e. q. of s. e. q. section 4, being all that portion of said s. e. q. of s. e. q. section 4, lying west of Bull Creek, all in section 4, township 28 range 21, containing in all 120 acres more or less, which said conveyance was made in trust to secure the payment of certain promissory notes in said deed described; and whereas said notes together with the interest thereon have been due under the provisions of said deed and have remained unpaid, and whereas the said deed provides that in case of default, death, refusal to act or disability in any way of said trustee, the then acting trustee of Taney County, Missouri, at the request of the legal holder of said notes, may proceed to sell said property; and whereas said trustee has refused to act under said trust, and therefore, I James A. Weatherman sheriff of Taney County, Missouri, in accordance with the provisions of said deed of trust in the same now stands executed by a judgment of the circuit court of Taney County, Missouri, made and entered on the 5th day of November, 1895, said day being the 5th day of the regular October term of said court for said year, wherein it was decreed that the grantees aforesaid be divested of the title of said land and the said trustee, C. C. Blount be vested therewith for the use and behoof of said trustee, and at the request of the legal holder of said notes we proceed to sell the above described real estate at the south door of the court house in the town of Forsyth, County of Taney and State of Missouri, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, on Saturday, January 19th, 1896, between the hours of 9 o'clock in the forenoon and 5 o'clock in the afternoon of that day to satisfy said notes together with the cost and expenses of executing this trust.
